DET Mission

The Division of Employment & Training will provide a seamless continuum of services to and accessed by employers, members of the workforce and their families so that:

- Employers have the workforce they need
- Individuals and families achieve economic self-sufficiency by making sound employment decisions, and maximizing their potential in the workforce

DET Service Delivery

The following programs impact the homeless population or those at risk of homelessness:

- Job Services
  - Our frontline staff work directly with homeless individuals and make appropriate referrals
- Office of Veterans Employment Services
  - Using federal funds, staff work with homeless veterans
- WIOA
  - A federal program providing workforce services and training to barriered populations

DET Service Delivery

The following programs & activities impact individuals who are economically insecure:

- Job Services
- OVES      Office of Veterans Employment Services
- RESEA      Re-employment Services & Eligibility Assessment
- WFF      Wisconsin Fast Forward
- WIOA      Workforce Investment & Opportunity Act
- WOTC      Work Opportunity Tax Credit
- Federal Economic Mobility Taskforce

DET Service Delivery Strategy

- DET partners with local Workforce Development Boards to implement WIOA Title 1 programs focusing on the adult, youth, and dislocated worker populations
- Job services are provided in-person, virtually, and over the phone by DWD staff
- Veterans with 30% or more service-connected disability are served by our Office of Veterans Employment Services
- All of our participants are tracked in an internal database called ASSET
